

— 37.6° N · CLIFFSIDE, GREECE

The sea checks in before you do.

Twelve rooms cut into the cliff above the Aegean.

Terraces angled for sunset, water three shades of blue below, and a concierge — human and AI — who already knows what you drink at seven a.m.

Kalliope knows the tides.

Our concierge AI learns the island as fast as it learns you — ferry times, the quiet cove nobody photographs, which table keeps the sunset without the wind. Ask it in the app, at check-in, or right here.
